Seal 6 (Rev 6:12-17)

Interlude 1

Seal 7 (Rev 8:1-6)

Trumpet 1 (Rev 8:7)

Trumpet 2 (Rev 8:8-9)

John hears that the 144,000 bond servants are from "every tribe" of the sons of Israel (Rev 7:4-8).

A great multitude of tribulation saints, wearing white robes, are worshiping and praising God and His Son (Rev 7:9-17).

30 minutes of silence before the 7 angels standing before God receive their trumpets.

Smoke of the incense with the prayers of the martyred saints go up before God.

An angel takes the censer, fills it with fire from the alter and throws it down to earth.

The angel with the first trumpet sounds.

The angel with the second trumpet sounds.

Four angels, standing at the four corners of earth, "to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea" are told not to "harm the earth or the sea or the trees" until the bond servants of God have been sealed (Rev 7:1-3).

One of the four angels standing at the four corners of the earth throws hail and fire mixed with blood to earth.

One of the four angels standing at the four corners of the earth throws something like a great mountain burning with fire into the sea.

Thunder, lightening, 1 earthquake

A third of the earth, including a third of the trees and all of the grasses, is burned up.

A third of the sea turns to blood, killing a third of all sea creatures and destroying a third of all sea ships.

The 2 Witnesses are active in ministry.

The 144,000 chaste Messianic Jewish bond servants of God are being sealed with Jesus' and His Father's name (Rev 7:1-3; 14:1-5).

Before the seventh seal is broken, all existing tribulation saints on earth are dead (Rev 6:11; 7:9-17).

The 2 Witnesses are active in ministry.

The bond servants of God are being sealed (Rev 7:1-3).

Trumpet 6
(Rev 9:13-21)

Interlude 2

Trumpet 7
(Rev 11:15-19)

An angel blows trumpet 6, and a voice from the altar instructs the angel with the sixth trumpet to release the 4 angels bound at the Euphrates.

This is the second woe.

The apostle John hears a voice from heaven to take the book from the strong angel standing on earth and eat it (Rev 10:1-11).

An angel blows trumpet 7, and loud voices in heaven cry, "the kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever!"

The Temple of God in heaven opens.

A strong angel goes down to earth from heaven with a little book in hand. "There will be delay no longer."

A third of mankind was killed by three plagues emitted by horses: 1) fire, 2) smoke, and 3) brimstone.

The four bound angels were limited to kill 1/3 of the population leaving at most 50% of the original population before the tribulation began.

The survivors of the plagues were unrepentant (Rev 9:20-21).

2 Witnesses slain by the fallen angel from the abyss (Rev 11:7).

All of the 144,000 bond servants and all new Believers are dead.

There is no one left to share the gospel.

The bodies of the 2 Witnesses are not allowed to be buried and in 3-1/2 days, they are raptured causing fear among the public (Rev 11:8-12).

In the hour of the rapture of the 2 Witnesses, lightening, thunder, a great earthquake and a great hailstorm occurs. The great earthquake topples 1/10 of Jerusalem and kills 7 thousand (Rev 11:13).

Although many gave glory to God, none came to faith, because the tribulation has ended just prior to the seventh trumpet (Matt 24:29-31).

Seal 6 (Rev 6:12-17) - continues

Jesus Reaps

Angel Reaps

The 144,000 sealed bond servants sing an exclusive song to God before the 4 living creatures and elders (Rev 14:1-5).

The tribulation saints are holding harps and singings praises to God.

The temple of the tabernacle of testimony opens and the 7 angels with the seven plagues come out and are given 7 golden bowls full of God's wrath. The 7 plagues are the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished (Rev 15:1-8).

Angel #1 flies preaching the eternal gospel to every nation, tribe and tongue (Matt 24:9-14; Mark 13:9-10).

Angel #2 follows declaring that Babylon has fallen.

Angel #3 follows and warns those who have the mark of the Antichrist of their doom. "Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on!" (Rev 14:6-13)

Jesus comes in the cloud and swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was reaped (Rev 14:14-16).

The reaping by the angel is the third woe.

Rapture occurs where the bodies of slain saints are joined with their spirits in heaven (Matt 24:29-31; 1 Cor 15:50-53; 1 Thes 1:10; 2 Thes 4:16-17).

This is not a resurrection.

Bowl 1 (Rev 16:1-2)	Bowl 2 (Rev 16:3)	Bowl 3 (Rev 16:4-7)	Bowl 4 (Rev 16:8-9)	Bowl 5 (Rev 16:10-11)
The first angel goes and pours his bowl on the earth.	The second angel goes and pours his bowl into the sea.	The third angel goes and pours his bowl into the rivers and springs of water.	The fourth angel goes and pours his bowl upon the sun.	The fifth angel goes and pours his bowl on the throne of the Antichrist.

Loathsome and malignant sores developed on people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.	The sea became blood like that of a dead man, and every living thing in the sea died.	The rivers and springs of water became blood.	The sun scorched men with fierce heat. They blasphemed God and did not repent.	The Antichrist's kingdom became darkened, and people gnawed their tongues because of pain. They blasphemed the God of heaven, and did not repent of their deeds.

Seal 6 (Rev 6:12-17) - culminates with part of Bowl 7

Angel Reaps

Bowl 6
(Rev 16:12)

The sixth angel goes and pours his bowl on the great river Euphrates.

Bowl 7 (Rev 16:17-21)

The seventh angel goes and pours his bowl into the air (Rev 16:17-21).

The Euphrates dried up and prepared for the kings from the east.

3 demons, one from Satan, the Antichrist and the False Prophet go out to the kings of the world to gather them at Armageddon (Rev 16:13-16; Matt 24:42-44; 1 Thes 5:1-3).

"It is done!" Lightning, thunder and a great earthquake causing every island to move and the mountain could not be found. Babylon split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell (Rev 16:19).

Seal 6: There was a great earthquake and every mountain and island were moved out of their place. The sun became black, the moon became like blood, and the stars of the sky fell to the earth. The sky was split apart, and everyone hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains in fear (Rev 6:12-17).

And huge hailstones, about one hundred pounds each, fell upon people, and they blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail (Rev 16:21).
