

Getting the Most from Biblical Narratives

1. What makes the Bible's narratives different and unique from other religious books?
2. What tips will help you read the Bible's historical narratives better?
3. What are some instances where you learn about ancient history? What resources could help you learn about this?
4. When you take the time to study narratives beyond the immediate context, what can God show you?