

God's Nature: All Knowing

1. What do you observe about God's knowledge?

Do you know how God directs his clouds
or makes their lightning flash?

Do you understand how the clouds float,
those wonderful works of him who has perfect knowledge? (Job 37:15-16, CSB)

This is how we will know that we belong to the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows all things. (1 John 3:19-20, CSB)

Our Lord is great, vast in power;
his understanding is infinite. (Ps 147:5, CSB)

Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord,
or who gave him counsel?
Who did he consult?
Who gave him understanding
and taught him the paths of justice?
Who taught him knowledge
and showed him the way of understanding? (Isa 40:13-14, CSB)

God's Nature: All Knowing
Teacher Notes

1. What do you observe about God's knowledge?

Do you know how God directs his clouds
or makes their lightning flash?

Do you understand how the clouds float,
those wonderful works of him who has perfect knowledge? (Job 37:15-16, CSB)

Ask the student: what is perfect knowledge? Help them understand the term "perfect."

God has perfect knowledge. Perfect knowledge is absolute, complete, and without error.

This is how we will know that we belong to the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows all things. (1 John 3:19-20, CSB)

Help the student understand the term "all."

God knows all things. Everything that could be possibly known including the past, present and future.

Our Lord is great, vast in power;
his understanding is infinite. (Ps 147:5, CSB)

Help the student understand the term "infinite."

God's understanding is infinite; it is endless, without limit, and beyond measure.

Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord,
or who gave him counsel?
Who did he consult?

Who gave him understanding
and taught him the paths of justice?

Who taught him knowledge
and showed him the way of understanding? (Isa 40:13-14, CSB)

Help the student understand rhetorical questions that place an emphasis on God's omniscience. Who has given God direction or counsel? Who taught God the concept of justice? Who instructed God on knowledge and understanding? God's knowledge is the ultimate resource. There is nothing greater or better.
